OBC CELL (2021-22)

Introduction

The Other Backward Class (OBC) Cell in the college serves as a pivotal entity dedicated to promoting the educational and social interests of students belonging to Other Backward Classes. Established to ensure equitable opportunities and to address the unique challenges faced by these students, the OBC Cell plays a vital role in fostering an inclusive academic environment. It is committed to facilitating the access and success of OBC students through various support mechanisms, thereby contributing to their overall development and empowerment.

Objectives

Ensure Equal Opportunities: To provide OBC students with equal opportunities in academic and extracurricular activities.

Support Academic Success: To offer academic support and resources tailored to the needs of OBC students.

Address Grievances: To serve as a platform for addressing the grievances and issues faced by OBC students.

Promote Awareness: To increase awareness about the rights and benefits available to OBC students.

Foster Inclusion: To create an inclusive environment that respects and values the diversity of OBC students.
